Testimony of Mr. Abner Elmes, Market street, above Sixth, corroborative of the officacy of Williams's
Anti-Dyspeptic Elizir,
Dit. James Williams:

Pear Sir—It gives me great pleasure to know that you are again preparing your medicine for the cure of Dyspepsia, for many of my acquaintances have repeatedly a-ked me where it could be procured knowing that I had been cured by it. As I think that a public acknowledgement of the great benefit I have received from the use of your medicine, is not only due to you, but may be useful to others, I now make it. For several years I suffered from Dyspepeia, which increased to such an extent that my health and constitution were rapidly sinking under it. I was compelled to restrict myself to the most simple food, and even that I could not digest; I felt a loss of trength, disinclination to exercise, and (as you have it in your advertisement) a general feeling of depres hearing from others high recomme hearing from others high recommendation of your Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, I procured and used it with the most happy effect; under its influence languer and weariness gradually passed away, and my appetite revived, which I could graifly with impunity. Ten years have now elapsed, and my confidence in the curative powers of your medicine has of course in creased, for it completely cured me, when I failed to obtain relief from any other source.

Very respectfully, yours.

Very respectfully, yours, ABNER ELMES. The "Elixir" is sold in bottles at $1 each, or six botties for $5.
